

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

earlier days, compared with those of to-day, John Noyes, of Bow, N. H. (born in 1720), had eight sons, who had seventy-five (75) children.

Of the Noyeses now living only a few belong to the sixth generation; those of the seventh are, as a rule, well along in years, as are some of the eighth, and a few of the ninth, also. The majority of those now living belong to the eighth and ninth generations, while the younger members of the family are of the ninth and tenth; the eleventh has been reached in only a few lines. The oldest whom the authors have met was Hon. John W. Noyes, of Chester, N. H., who recently died at the advanced age of ninety-two years. He was of the sixth generation.

Considerable assistance beyond that concerning their immediate relatives has been given by quite a number of the family, or those related by marriage. To each and all we make due acknowledgment, especially to Mr. Alfred Poore for the use of his genealogical notes; to Miss Mary T. Little, for her notes concerning the family in Newbury and vicinity; to H. Wallace Noyes, for Noyes records of Portland, Me., and vicinity; to Miss Ollie J. Noyes, for Noyes records of her line; to James Atkins Noyes, for records of the family of Rev. William Noyes of England, and his descendants, in direct line to his own family; and extracts from his pamphlet, "Noyes Inscription and Memoranda"; to Miss Louise and Miss Margaret Noyes, for their valuable assistance in preparing these records for the printer; to Arthur E. Pearson, for records of the descendants of Jonathan Noyes of Rowley, Mass.; to John Noyes Morse, for records of the Sudbury branch; to Miss Hannah M. Noyes, for records of her line in Landaff, N. H., and vicinity; to Miss Florence Noyes, for many family records; to Hon. John J. Currier, for items from his "Ould Newbury" and "History of Newbury;" to Miss Sarah Anna Emery, for extracts from her "Reminiscences of a Nonogenarian"; and last, but not least, I wish to make full acknowledgment of the obligations I am under to the ladies of the family generally, and especially to the so-called "old maids": but for their valuable assistance I should have abandoned my self-imposed task long ago.

To many of my letters and circulars I have received a few lines in reply, telling me that the writer knew but little about the family history, but had an aunt, cousin, or sister, who was well posted, and that she would answer my inquiries, and she generally did, or referred me to some one who could.

As a rule, they take more interest in the family history than their fathers and brothers, who no doubt find their business cares too absorbing to allow them to devote any time to their ancestry; or are, like Abraham Lincoln, who said that he did not know who was his grandfather, and was more concerned to know what his grandson would be.

CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCTORY.

EARLY SETTLERS OF NEW ENGLAND.

Commencing with the Plymouth colony, in 1620, New England had many emigrants from the mother country in the early part of the century, and most, if not all, from the same cause. Under James I. all forms of worship which did not conform to those of the established church (Anglican) were strictly prohibited; and all "Non-Conformists," as they were called, were rigorously persecuted, and many fled to Holland and America. Catholics and Puritans suffered alike under that bigoted monarch.

His son Charles, who succeeded him, continued his father's policy of persecution. Mills, in his "Foundations of Genealogy," says: "To the student of history this date (1640) is an important one. It marks the culmination of the issue between Charles I. and the Puritans in England, when emigration to New England ceased, after more than 25,000 Puritans had left Old England for the New." Douglass Campbell, in his book, "The Puritans in England, Holland, and America," says: "Nowhere could absolutism have found a more ardent friend than in Archbishop Laud, who, from 1627 until his impeachment in 1641, was the virtual ruler of the English church. . . . Not only were the Puritan ministers driven from their livings by the hundred, flocking to Holland, their old shelter, and to America, a newly discovered refuge, but Laud extended his operations beyond anything dreamed of by his predecessors."

It was during this time that New England received most of its early settlers, and this persecution was no doubt the cause of the emigration of James and Nicholas Noyes, and those who came with them. Before leaving England all emigrants were required to take the oath of Supremacy and Allegiance. The record of the departure of those of our name is as follows, and is copied from an old book of orders, etc., belonging to the port of Southampton, now in the custom house in Portsmouth, Eng. (6th of December, 1735).

PASSENGERS IN THE MARY & JOHN, 1633-4.

Among the vessels detained in the river Thames by order of the king's Privy Council, Feb. 14, 1633-4, was the ship "Mary and John," whose passengers were obliged to take the following oath of allegiance before the ship was allowed to sail for New England:—

"I Doe sweare before the Almighty and ever living God, that I will beare all faithful allegiance to my true and undoubted Sovereigne Lord King Charles, who is Lawfull King of this Island and all other his dominions both by sea and land by the Law of God and man and by lawfull succession, and that I will most constantly and cheerfully even to the utmost hazard of my life and fortune oppose all seditions, rebellions, conspiraces, covenants, and treasons whatsoever against his ma'ties (majesties) Crowne and dignity or person, raysed or sett up under what pretense of religion or colour soever, and if it shall come veyled under pretense of religion I hould it most abominable before God & man.

And this oath I take voluntary, under the faith of a good Christian and loyall subject, without any equivocation or mentall reservation whatsoever, from w'ch I hould no power on earth can absolve me in any parte."

Ordered, 1st, That all and every person aboard their ships now bound for New England as aforesaid, that shall blaspheme or profane the holy name of God, shall be severely punished.

2nd. That they cause the prayers contained in the book of common prayer, established in the church of England, to be said daily at the usual hours, for morning and evening prayers, and that they cause all persons aboard their said ships to be present at the same.

"The list of the names of the passengers intended for New England in the good ship Confidence of London; of C. C. tonnes, John Jobson, Master; and thus by virtue of the Lord Treasurer's warrant of the 11th of April, 1638, Southampton, 24 of April, 1638.

Peter Noyce of Penton, Southampton.

(This family does not seem to be closely related to James and Nicholas, as the son Thomas, in a legal document, refers to Nicholas as his "good and trusty friend Nicholas Noyes." They settled in Sudbury, Mass., and their genealogy will be found in Volume II.)

No record has been found of the place and date of the landing of James and Nicholas, but it was probably on the bank of the Mystic river, as the records show that they settled in Medford in 1634, and that they moved to Newbury the following year. On arriving, they sailed up the Parker river (then called the Quascacunquen) to a point a short distance below where the bridge now stands. Tradition says that Nicholas was the first to leap ashore.

The descendants of Nicholas spread over eastern Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine, and from those states over all the northern states and into Canada; while those of his brother James were most numerous in Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island, whence they migrated to New York and the western states. Only in the counties of Lamoille and Bennington, Vermont, have many of the name been found that belong to that line. Comparatively few have been found in the south or the territories, or in Maine, who are descendants of James.

NOYES COATS OF ARMS.

By permission of the author, Mr. James Atkins Noyes, of Harvard University, the following extract is made from an article written by him for the N. E. Historical and Genealogical Register:—

“NOYES INSCRIPTION AND MEMORANDA.

BY JAMES ATKINS NOYES, A. B., PH. B.

A photograph of the light-brown stone tablet which covers the remains of Rev. James Noyes, in the ancient Palmer burying ground, upon a sloping hill on the east side of Wequetequoc Cove, midway between Stonington, Connecticut, and Westerly, Rhode Island, is reproduced in fac-simile.

Rev. James Noyes was a son of Rev. James Noyes of Newbury, Mass., and grandson of Rev. William Noyes, rector of Cholderton, county Wilts, England. He was born in Newbury, Mass., 11 March, 1639-40; was graduated at Harvard College, 1659; ordained 10 Sept., 1674, as the first minister of Stonington, Conn.; married, 11 Sept., 1674, Dorothy, daughter of Thomas and Anna (Lord) Stanton. Rev. James Noyes was one of the founders of Yale College.

The photograph was taken in 1889, under the direction of Judge Richard A. Wheeler, of Stonington, Conn. The tablet was recut before the photograph was taken. George W. Marshall, LL. D., Rouge Croix, Heralds' College, London, says that the only Noy-Noye-Noyes arms recorded are those of William Noy of Buryan, County Cornwall, England, who died in 1593, and whose grandson was William Noy, attorney general to Charles I. Those arms were granted by Robert Cook, Clarencieux, and the blazon is as follows:—

Coat—Azure three crosses in bend Argent.

Crest—On a chapeau azure turned up ermine a dove argent in the beak an olive branch Vert.

The epitaph was written by Rev. Eliphalet Adams, Harvard College, 1694, who died in 1773, pastor in 1720 of the First Congregational Church, New London, Conn. The original draft was, in 1889, in the Sunday School library room of the First Congregational Church, Stonington, Conn.

Rev. William Noyes, rector of Cholderton, county Wilts, Eng. (a town eleven miles from Salisbury), matriculated at University College, Oxford, 15 Nov., 1588, æt. 20 years, and was graduated B. A. 31 May, 1592. He married Anne Parker. He died intestate before 30 April, 1622, when an inventory was made, and widow appointed administratrix 28 May, 1622. (Court of Archdeacon of Sarum.) She was buried at Cholderton, 7 March, 1657, æt. 82 years (per parish register). Her will is at Somerset House, London (Wootton, 130), and mentions sons James and Nicholas, in New England. Will made 18 March, 1655, proved 21 of April, 1658, at London, (and gives "one shilling to each of my sons, James and Nicholas, now in New England."*)

*Added by Col. Noyes.

Their sons, Rev. James and Deacon Nicholas Noyes, in March, 1633, embarked for New England in the MARY AND JOHN of London, with their cousin, Rev. Thomas Parker, and were among the settlers of Newbury, Mass., May, 1635.

Rev. James Noyes, born in England about 1608 ; matriculated at Brasenose College, Oxford, 22 Aug., 1627, but was not graduated ; died at Newbury, Mass., 22 Oct., 1656, aet. 48 ; married, 1633, Sarah, eldest daughter of Mr. Joseph Brown, of Southampton, county Hants, Eng. She died 13 Sept., 1691, at Newbury, Mass. His will, made 17th Oct., 1656, proved 26 Nov., 1656, mentions wife Sara and children, brother deacon Nicholas Noyes, and cousin Rev. Thomas Parker. Inventory of estate amounting to £657, 11s. 4d. Her will, made 11 Nov., 1681, proved 29 Sept., 1691. Inventory of estate amounted to £1108.

The branch of the Noyes family of East Mascalls, county Sussex, England, represented by Thomas Herbert Noyes, B. A. Ch. Ch. Oxford, claim the arm as given below :—

Coat—Azure three crosses crosslett in bend Argent.

Crest—On a chapeau gules turned up ermine a dove Argent in the beak an olive branch Vert.

In her "Reminiscences of a Nonogenarian," Miss Sarah A. Emery gives the Noyes arms as follows:—

"Argent garb or three mullets gules interchanged.

Crest—Dove bearing olive branch."

There is no motto on the arms on Rev. James Noyes' tombstone, nor was there any before the inscription was recut. Various mottos have been used by different branches of the family, some using the arms for trademarks, etc. The cut below is an example of one so used. Besides that motto, several others noticed are, "Nuncia Pacis," "Crux Fidei Index," "Crux Fidei Coticula." In one case the head of a dove is turned to the right, with the motto, "Trust in the Cross."

(Note. As the William Noy referred to as attorney to Charles I. occupied that position from October, 1631, until August, 1634, he could not be identical with the Rev. William Noyes of Choulderton, as he died before 30th of April, 1622.)

"Boast not the titles of your ancestors,
Brave youths, they're their possessions, none of yours;
When your own virtues equalled have their names,
'Twill be but fair to lean upon their fames."

"Then dost thou come of gentle blood,
Disgrace not thy good ancestry.
If lowly born, so bear thyself
That gentle blood may come of thee."

For the benefit of those whose ancestors came with the early settlers from England, and who desire a coat of arms, but are not satisfied with those just shown, or are not sure that they have any right to use them, it will now be proven mathematically that they can choose any English coat of arms that they like, and prove their descent from any English ancestor of the time of William the Conqueror, if they can prove their English descent, as can the descendants of Rev. William Noyes.

It is now about 840 years since the Norman conquest; allowing thirty years for each generation (a conservative estimate), there have been twenty-eight (28) generations in that time. Each person has had two parents, four grandparents, eight great-grandparents, and so on, doubling for each preceding generation. To find the total number of ancestors in any previous generation it is only necessary to continue this doubling process as many times as indicated by the number of generations considered. In this case the process must be continued twenty-eight times, which will give the grand total of 134,217,728 ancestors of that time; as one-half of them were females, there were 67,108,864 male ancestors for each of us in the time of William the Conqueror—a number vastly greater than the total male population of all the British islands at that time; hence we can claim William himself, and all his followers, as well as all other male adults of that time in England, for our English ancestors. Of course this includes all classes, criminals, as well as the nobility.

This seems impossible, but a solution has been advanced by Prof. David S. Jordan of Stanford University, in his "Footnotes to Evolution." He claims that intermarriages of those of the same ancestry have eliminated a large number of ancestors. By his permission, the following letter on the subject is copied:—

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT,
LELAND STANFORD JUNIOR UNIVERSITY, }
CAL., Sept. 1, 1902.

COL. HENRY E. NOYES, 2611 Parker St., Berkeley, Cal.

Dear Sir:—

In a volume of mine, called "Footnotes to Evolution," under the head, "The Heredity of Richard Roe," you will find a number of suggestions as to genealogy, including the solution of the problem to which you refer.

As a matter of fact, there were living, say in the time of William the First, a certain number, say a million, of vigorous men, who have left numerous descendants, and whose descendants have inherited for the most part their own vigor. This million or so occur in the ancestry of nearly every Englishman of our time. If we could complete the genealogical tree, we should find that some of these men occur a thousand different times in the same genealogy. I doubt if there is an Englishman in the south of England who does not have the blood of Alfred and William the First in his own veins. His mother's family were descended from the Plantagenets, as were also his father's family, and probably Plantagenet blood from a thousand different sources runs in your veins and mine, and in those of any neighbor you may chance to meet. It is easy to prove this in every case in which a record has been kept. In most cases the clues have been lost at the time of emigration. In other words, it is true that at the time of William the First you had an ancestry a thousand times greater than the population of England. But certain parts of this were repeated ten thousand times. Whatever line you follow, you will find somewhere at the end of it the same names.

Very truly yours,

(Signed)      DAVID S. JORDAN.

Miss Harriette E. Noyes, associate author of this volume, is an example of Prof. Jordan's theory, as she is a descendant of Joseph<sup>3</sup> (grandson of Nicholas) on the paternal and maternal side, her parents being cousins in the third degree. Her mother is also a descendant of Rev. James Noyes, brother of Nicholas.

Were there no intermarriages of ancestors, the mathematical calculation would hold good; but when there are such intermarriages, one-half of the ancestors, previous to those who intermarried, are eliminated.

ORIGIN OF THE NAME.

Those who are expecting to find recorded in this volume

“A successive title long and dark,

Drawn from the mouldy rolls of Noah's Ark,” will be somewhat disappointed. Interest is naturally felt in our ancestry and in the origin of the name, and it has been made the subject of considerable investigation. Some think it is derived from Noy, a titled English family name. Those who have made the subject of family names a study have generally agreed that the tendency has always been to shorten rather than lengthen them, whenever changed. This is natural, and tends to confirm the opinion formed from the first researches on the subject of which we have any record, as given in the memorandum of the eminent jurist, the late William Curtis Noyes, dated 20 Dec., 1847; from such a source it is entitled to due consideration. This is supplemented and confirmed by George W. Noyes (783, chapter VI.), who went to England in 1867 to search the records there for his ancestry and the origin of the name: the notes of his researches are now in the possession of his nephew, Dr. Theodore R. Noyes, who, in answer to a letter on the subject, wrote a full account, from which the following extracts are copied, with his permission:—

“ 281 West 114th St., New York, Dec. 3d, 1892.

COL. HENRY E. NOYES, 2d Cavalry, Fort Huachuca, Arizona.

Dear Sir:—

Your letter of the 14th ult., addressed to Rev. John H. Noyes, after some delay, was sent to his widow, my mother, who is living with me here, and has requested me to answer your queries. I am not much of a genealogist myself, but my uncle, George W. Noyes, father's younger brother, was an enthusiast in that and other antiquarian researches, and left a manuscript note book containing a summary of the result of his inquiries.

He begins with a reference to the “Domesday book,” compiled by William the Conqueror about 1086, by which it appears that one of his commanders was William Des Noyers, who settled in the county of Norfolk, where he had large possessions (see Domesday book, Vol. 2, 116, 117, 135, 195 to 169). In Thierry's History of the Norman Conquest he is stated to have been one of the Barons of the Conqueror. The family continued in Norfolk and Suffolk many years, their descendants remaining to the present day (see Bloomfield's History of Norfolk). One of the family was imprisoned in the time of Mary for denying the “real presence” (see Fox's Martyrs—John Noyes).

My uncle was in England in 1867, and went to Wiltshire and Choulderton, where the father of Nicholas and James was rector about 1585 to 1616. The rector at the time of my uncle's visit was absent, so that my uncle could not get access to the register; but after his return to this country he received a courteous letter from the Rev. C. P. Clovetien, saying that the register dated only from 1651. * * * * The rector whos tarted the register wrote on the page before beginning entries : "Mr. William Noyes, rector of Choulderton about thirty years, departed his life anno 1616. Mr. Nathan Noyes succeeded his father in the rectorie, and departed his life about 1651." * * * *

While the time from 1086 to the time of the Rev. William Noyes does not yield any regular genealogy, there is scarcely room for doubt that the family came down for five hundred years in a narrow region of Norfolk. When America is reached the line diverges into two distinct branches, those of James and Nicholas. * * * *

The following is my uncle's genealogical chart, with my own position indicated :—

Very respectfully,

(Signed) THEODORE R. NOYES."

The references in the foregoing letter have been examined and found generally correct, except that a casual reading of Thierry's History of the Norman Conquest shows William de Noyers as engaged with Roger Bigot and another Norman in despoiling some English refugees who fled from a neighboring county into Suffolk, in 1074. A careful reading would probably confirm the reference fully. Many other pages of Domesday book have records of lands held by him, or, as he is variously called, W. de Noers, W. denoes, Will de noers, Willm denuers, W. de noies, W. denoiers, W. de noiiers, W. denoiers, Willi de noies, Willm denoiers. (The French name, translated, means, "William (of the) Walnut trees." The prefix "de" or "des" would naturally be dropped first, leaving, as the Anglicised form of the name, "William Noyers," which differs by only one letter from the name of our known English ancestor.

Some of the lands referred to were described as formerly the property of Bishop Stigand, who had taken a prominent part at the coronation of William, but was later deposed from his office and dispossessed of his lands, which were allotted to Normans. Stigand was Archbishop of Canterbury, and held much property which he was accused of having obtained illegally.

We are indebted to an expert in mediæval history (a member of the faculty of the California State University) for translating the abbreviated Latin of Domesday book.

Quite a number of other opinions as to the origin of the family and name have been suggested by correspondents from time to time, one of which comes from the far West, and is as follows: "I think our branch of the family descended from Philip de la Noye, who came over in the ship Fortune in 1621, landing at Plymouth. He was cousin to Priscilla Moulines, afterwards wife of John Alden. Both were French Huguenots, but came from England. They added an "s" to the name, making it Noyes, and left off the prefix. The Delanos are of the same origin."

Another writes as follows: "The crest of the coat of arms—to wit, the dove with an olive branch in its mouth,—gives color to the fact that the family comes from the ark. I am told that the words Noah and Noyes mean the same thing—saved from drowning; and from the fact that there are men near the bridge over the Seine, in Paris, who have for their occupation the saving of drowning people, and on their signs, indicating their business, is the name "Noyes." From these circumstances I frequently claim that I belong to the oldest family in the world. I have heard that the name was originally De la Noye, or from the drowned—saved from drowning; which takes us back to the flood, and the ark, and the name Noe (Noah). It is said that some of the family took the name Delano."

Numerous other opinions might be copied, but these are fair samples of many. It has been suggested that a "Noyes Association" be incorporated, and funds raised to explore Mt. Ararat for the remains of the ark, to ascertain if Noah left any records to sustain the later theory, and if such a plan materializes, Col. Noyes offers to head the expedition, and give his services to the association gratis.

(NOTE. The French verb "Noyer" means to drown: the past participle is Noyé, drowned: used as a substantive, in the plural form, it is Noyés, meaning drowned persons. The second person, singular, of the present indicative and subjunctive modes is Noyes, which probably accounts for the words being on the life saving stations.)

"However it be, it seems to me
'Tis only noble to be good;
Kind hearts are more than coronets,
And simple faith than Norman blood."

In 1896 a letter was received from Col. Henry T. Noyes, of Rochester, N. Y., from which the following extract is made: "In 1883 I visited Choulderton, Wiltshire, England, and found some interesting facts. Rev. William Noyes' family at one time owned the living in Wiltshire, but their lands were confiscated by the crown, on account of the dissenting views held by them.

I have a sketch of the old church, which, however, has been remodelled and a part made over into a parish school. The wife of Rev. William Noyes was a sister of the scholar, Robert Parker, whom Mather called one of the greatest scholars of the English nation, and was, in a measure, the father of all 'Non-conformists.' " * * * *

The old church at Choulderton, of which Rev. William Noyes was rector, as shown in the cut, was forty feet two inches in length, by sixteen feet three inches in width. It was said to have been torn down, or remodelled to a parish school, in 1850.

SPELLING AND PRONUNCIATION OF THE NAME.

There is much more uniformity in spelling the name than with some families ; with a single exception, the only departure from the usual way of spelling it that has been noticed in a correspondence extending over ten years of time, and in several thousand letters and circulars, is that a few have spelled it Noyce ; as for the proper pronunciation, that of the early generations in this country, to rhyme with choice, is no doubt the correct way, as indicated on the tombstone of Timothy<sup>2</sup>, son of Nicholas<sup>1</sup> Noyes (born 1655). This stone still marks his grave in the Newbury cemetery :—(See dedication and chapter V).

“ Good Timothy in his youthfull days
He lived much unto God’s prays,
When age came one he and his wife
They lived a holy & a pious life.
Therefore you children whos nams are Noyes
Make Jesus Christ your only choyse.”

Some biographical encyclopedias give “Noiz” as the proper pronunciation ; but this implies a sound of “z,” which is not correct.

GIVEN NAMES.

(Extracts from “Puritan Nomenclature” by Charles W. Bardsley.)

“ There were no Scripture names in England when William the Conqueror took possession ; even in Normandy they had appeared but a generation or two before then. * * * Before many generations had passed, Simon, Peter, Thomas, Nicholas, John, and Elias, had engaged a third of the male population : yet Domesday book had no Philip, no Thomas, and only one Nicholas. * * * From the advent of William the names of the Normans began to prevail : he brought in Bible names, saint names, and his own Teutonic names. * * *

In every community of one hundred Englishmen, about the year 1800, there would be an average of twenty Johns; fifteen Williams: then would follow Thomas, Nicholas, Philip, Simon, Peter, and Isaac, from the Scriptures; and Richard, Robert, Walter, Henry, Guy, Roger and Baldwin, from the Teutonic." * * *

(From Notes and Queries.)

"The popularity of John is believed to be due to the supposed suitability in baptism of the Baptist's name, just as Jordan was a name usually given to children who were baptized in water brought from Palestine by pilgrims or crusaders. The prevalence of William is due to William the Conqueror; that of Robert to sympathy with the misfortunes of his son. Thomas came in with the murder of the great archbishop. The crusading exploits of Richard I. made the name popular, while to the adventures of the Paladins we owe Roland, Roger, and Reginald. In the fourteenth century Charles, James and George are almost unknown. Charles only became popular after the execution of Charles I., and George came in with the Hanoverian dynasty."

The Noyeses have been quite partial to apostolic names in the past, as their frequency in this volume shows. For their daughters, Mary exceeds all others in frequency, as is the rule in many Christian countries.

A few names have been found that are common to both sexes—Bernice, Clarence, Guy, Marian and Marion, Vivian, Pearl, etc., and some have been used arbitrarily, regardless of sex.

Some genealogies have long lists of given names, with their significations; this is not considered essential, as they can be found in most town and city libraries, in books concerning names, and in dictionaries.

We have our share of queer or unusual names, as will be seen by reference to the index. As a rule, given names have been recorded as received, although some of them seem to have been improvised; but the children are not responsible for the vagaries of their parents. Among the descendants of Rev. James was a daughter whose name appeared to be Windmill, as nothing else could be made of it as written, but inquiry on the subject showed that the name was intended for Mindwell. In the Nicholas line a son appeared on a record received as Annanias, which had to be changed to Amarius. For really curious names we are far behind some families; the Corwins had a daughter named Yet Once Corwin; the Vaux family named their first girl Alpha, and their last Omega; the Branches have an Olive Branch, and Miss Gates has Pearl for her first name. An officer of the army named his daughter for the day she was born, and she writes it May 26. Oakland, Cal., has the Chapman twins, named Oney and Twoey, in the order of their arrival. A neighboring town has Miss Innocence Algreen as a society belle, and Miss Evening Star lives in the same town. Mrs. Daisy Butterfly recently died in San Francisco.

OTHER NOYES GENEALOGICAL PUBLICATIONS.

There have been quite a number of charts and pamphlets published (or prepared) giving the genealogy of some of the numerous branches of the family, in the order of their dates, as follows:—

Chart by George W. Noyes, showing his ancestry, and another giving the Hayes-Rutherford-Noyes, etc., marriage connections.

Pamphlet by Jacob Noyes, giving the genealogy of the Noyeses of Abington, Mass.

Pamphlet, "Memorial to My Honored Kindred," by Charles W. Darling, and chart showing marriages of the Darling-Noyes-Pierrepoint, etc., families, with the descendants of Mabel Harlakenden, with her pedigree from William the Conqueror (a genealogical curiosity).

Pamphlet by Horatio N. Noyes, giving his branch of the descendants of Rev. James Noyes.

Chart by Charles P. Noyes, giving his and his wife's ancestry. This is semi-circular in form, and is very interesting.

Pamphlet by James Atkins Noyes, giving the genealogy of his branch of the descendants of Nicholas Noyes, including the family of the Rev. William Noyes, the English ancestor.

Pamphlet by same author, "Noyes Inscription and Memoranda."

Octavo volume by LaVerne W. Noyes, entitled "Noyes and Allied Families," giving thirty pages to his branch of the descendants of Rev. James Noyes.

The History of Pembroke, N. H., has eleven pages concerning the descendants of Nicholas Noyes.

In her interesting "Reminiscences of a Nonagenarian," Sarah Anna Emery of Newburyport, Mass., devotes seven pages to the Noyes family.

Judge R. A. Wheeler's History of Stonington, Conn., gives much genealogy of the descendants of the two sons of Rev. James Noyes, who settled in that vicinity.

David Noyes' History of Norway, Me., has considerable concerning the Noyeses of that vicinity.

Coffin's History of Newbury and Currier's "Ould Newberry," and "History of Newbury" have much that is interesting.

Many of the histories of New England towns have something concerning the Noyeses, as they were represented in most of them.

Some interesting experiences have attended the collection of the data which has served as the basis of this volume, not the least of which was an article in the press dispatches in 1894, stating that Nicholas Noyes of Newbury, Mass., had died and left a large fortune to his heirs, and that I was to find them and divide it among them. At first it was annoying, but it soon proved a blessing in disguise, as some who had given no attention to my circulars before this, now showed great interest and sent the records, with anxious inquiries as to when the fortune would be divided. It was all a canard, invented by a Noyes of Springfield, Ohio, to whom I had sent a circular, and who could not appreciate the efforts for collecting such data, except for mercenary motives. The thousands who have received circulars know that no mention of any fortune was made in the circulars sent to them, but the rumor no doubt brought some records that would never have been received but for its stimulating influence.

The Associated Press received the following item :—

“ SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, June 2, 1894. A. Noyes of this city is corresponding with other heirs, scattered all over the country, to secure a division of $40,000,000 left by Nicholas Noyes, late of Newbury, Mass. Ex-Gov. Noyes is a cousin, and H. E. Noyes of Berkeley, Cal., is foremost in the matter.”

Following are some of the many articles from the newspapers on the subject :—

MILLIONS IN IT.

(Special Dispatch to the Enquirer.)

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, June 2. Millions are awaiting the heirs of the late Nicholas Noyes, of Newbury, Mass., who left a colossal estate in this country, Mexico, and England. The estate is estimated at from $40,000,000 to $60,000,000. A. Noyes, steward at the Arcade Hotel, is on the list, his grandfather having been a son of the dead millionaire. Henry E. Noyes, of Berkeley, Cal., has undertaken the task of completing a list of heirs-at-law, and writes A. Noyes that he has already in hand $20,000,000 ready for distribution as soon as the list is completed. Ex-Governor E. F. Noyes was a cousin of the deceased millionaire, and there are branches of the family in all parts of the country.

THE NOYESSES.

FORTY-FIVE PEOPLE TO GET A MILLION EACH.

BRANCHES OF THE FAMILY IN ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY.

(Gazette, Haverhill, Mass.)

A vast estate in this country, in Mexico, and in England, has been left by the late Nicholas Noyes of Newbury, Mass., and a search is being made for the heirs-at-law, who are thought to number 45.

Nicholas Noyes died some years since in Newbury, having an estate in lands, stocks, etc., the present value of which is variously estimated at from forty to sixty millions of Uncle Sam's good round hard dollars. Henry E. Noyes of Berkeley, Cal., has undertaken the task of completing a list of the heirs-at-law, and verifying their titles and claims individually. He is in correspondence with Springfield's representative of the family tree, A. Noyes, and writes that he has already in hand $20,000,000, ready for distribution as soon as the list of fortunate ones is completed, which work he is hastening as much as possible. He thinks there are at least $40,000,000 more of the estate yet to be acquired. Ex-Gov. E. F. Noyes was a cousin of the deceased millionaire, it is stated, and there are branches of the family in all parts of the country. A. Noyes, the efficient steward at the Arcade hotel, Springfield, Ohio, is on the list, his grandfather having been a son of the dead and gone millionaire.

NICHOLAS NOYES.

RATHER UNSATISFACTORY INFORMATION GLEANED IN NEWBURY
RESPECTING HIM.

(Special Dispatch to the Boston Journal.)

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., June 2. The story of Nicholas Noyes' large estate reached this place through the Boston Journal of this morning. A full investigation relative to Nicholas Noyes of Newbury, Mass., resolves itself into the following details :

I learned from the very intelligent historical Miss Mary Tappan Little, who has in her possession records of the Noyes family, deaths, estates, etc., from 1635 to 1860.

Nicholas Noyes, the only one of that name, died in Newbury, September, 1843. His will was written April, 1840, and approved November, 1843. His only son, "Pike" Noyes, died two weeks before his father. He left one daughter, who married Jonathan Boardman of Newburyport, to whom was born several children, but they all died in youth. "Pike" Noyes left one daughter, Jane Noyes, who died unmarried. Thus Nicholas Noyes and his family are extinct. An inventory rendered of the property of Nicholas Noyes, in June, 1844, shows personal property of $194.50. The homestead, house and farm, made a total of $2600 of real and personal property.

The property of Jane Noyes was small, and by her willed to a young man to whom she was to be married. After her death he left this vicinity, and nothing has been known of him for forty-five years. The entire story, so far as any information can be gained connecting any Nicholas Noyes of Newbury, Mass., is pronounced "very fishy." A Dr. Nicholas Noyes lived in Andover, Mass., leaving several children when he died, in 1765.

THE STORY PURE FICTION.

NICHOLAS NOYES OF NEWBURY HAS NOT LEFT VAST POSSESSIONS IN MEXICO AND ENGLAND.

NEWBURYPORT, June 4, 1894. The story that Nicholas Noyes of Newbury has left vast possessions in Mexico and England is a pure fiction.

The original Nicholas Noyes, the ancestor of most of the Noyeses in the United States, is said to have been the first person to leap ashore from the boat on the first landing of settlers from Ipswich at Parker river, in Newbury, in 1635. A later Nicholas Noyes appeared on the scene a century or more ago, but neither he nor the original Nicholas possessed much wealth. They always resided in Newbury.

ARRANGEMENT.

SERIAL NUMBERS.

The name of every descendant of Nicholas Noyes, who married, has a number before it for reference, called its serial number. Every male who married and had a family will have two other numbers, where he is shown as the head of his family, unless it follows his father's, when he will have only his serial number. The number following the name, and on the same line, is his father's serial number; the third number, immediately after and just above the name, denotes the number of the generation, counting from Nicholas as the first generation. In the family records this number is given but once (to the first child), as all children of the same family are of the same generation. Every son who married and had a family is recorded twice, once as a child of his father's family, and again as the head of his own family, and is designated by a star before the serial number of his name.

To trace any ancestry, look back for the serial number following the name, and this will show the father's family; the number following his name will lead to the grandfather's family; and so on, back to the son of Nicholas, who is the ancestor in the second generation.

The serial numbers of the married daughters will be found in the records of their fathers' families only. When the serial number of a son is not found where it should naturally be (in the natural sequence of his generation), it will be found following the record of his father's family, if he had a family; if there were no children, he is shown only in his father's family.

Some of the serial numbers were accidentally omitted, in passing from one family or generation to another; others were purposely omitted, viz., all numbers ending with 1, after 900 (901, 911, 921, etc.), in order to provide for additions, to correct errors, etc., etc. Many of these numbers have already been used. In a few cases some of the children have been given their father's serial number, with the letters a, b, c, etc., added to identify them; the record of their marriage having been overlooked when the family was numbered, or but recently received.

This volume contains all that is available concerning the known descendants of Nicholas Noyes, and is divided into seven chapters, one introductory, and one for him and each of his six sons. Following the last one will be the index of marriages, with the names of the allied families arranged alphabetically by the surnames; except that Noyes-Noyes marriages are so arranged by the given names of the wives.

Before each name (to the left on the same line) is the serial number of the Noyes, followed by the number of the page on which it will be found, if the Noyes ancestry is known. Quite a number of marriages have been copied from newspapers, town records, etc., without the Noyes ancestry having been determined.

Example—Abigail Poor married John Noyes, who is recorded in Chapter III.; his serial number is 67. The marriage index will show this: 67 Poor, Abigail. Look on the page given for No. 67, where John is shown at the head of his family.

Following the marriage index will be the index of all Noyeses named in this volume, arranged alphabetically by their given names. Following this will be the index of all towns, cities, counties, etc., with page references.

Volume II. contains all the known descendants of Rev. James Noyes, and all those whose ancestry has not been determined. Also the Noyes descendants of Peter Noyes of Sudbury, 1638.

As a rule, all titles have been omitted in the records of the children of a family ; and what is known of any service in the army, navy, marine, or merchant marine service, is stated under the name of the head of the family, if it is his service that is recorded ; but if it is the service of a son who is not the head of a family, then the service record will follow that of the family. All service records that cannot be definitely fixed will be recorded in the last chapter. Church and other local titles are generally omitted, except that for clergymen—Rev.

As a complete record of service of all Noyeses in Colonial, Indian, Revolutionary, Mexican, Civil, and Spanish wars was considered desirable, application was made to the chief of the record and pension office of the war department for copies of all such records. In reply it was stated that it was forbidden to furnish copies of such records for publication. But personal requests for records of not more than two ancestors of applicants will be furnished under rules adopted for such cases.

For making corrections, and additions of births, etc., a number of blank leaves, conveniently ruled, are inserted at the end of each chapter, after the second ; each family can continue its genealogy for several generations to come by this means. This will also enable the female lines to continue their genealogy from where it branches from the Noyes line.

In some cases the birth dates seem to indicate that the laws of nature have failed ; in all such cases it is safe to assume that dates, etc., have been incorrectly copied, or that the difference between the old style of chronology and the new is not understood.

There are quite a number of colored families named Noyes in New England ; they are probably descendants of slaves owned by Noyeses in colonial times. The records of Woburn show this marriage, under date of Oct. 3, 1760 :

“ John Noyes, a mulatto servant to Lt. James Hay of Stoneham and Phillis — of Woburn were married by Rev. John Earl, Sept. 3, 1760.”

READ THIS CAREFULLY.

To assist in tracing ancestry, and to show graphically the lines of descent, a genealogical chart of the Noyes descendants of Nicholas Noyes, in the second and third generations, is given in Chapter II; and there will be other charts preceding the third or fourth generations, continuing this plan, including the eighth generation. With these and the directions already given, there should be no difficulty in tracing the ancestral lines. The absence of the names of male descendants, in many cases, in these charts, does not imply that there were none; it simply indicates that none have been found. In some cases it is certain that there were male descendants, but no record of them was available.

On account of the frequent repetition of many of the given names, the Noyes index will not be of much benefit in finding any Noyes record, except for an unusual given name. The better method in all cases will be to consult the marriage index. If your name is Noyes, look for your mother's maiden name, the serial number of the Noyes whom she married will precede it, followed by the page. In a similar manner any other family may be found, if the maiden name of the mother is known.

If your name is not Noyes, you can find the Noyes family to which your mother belongs by looking for your father's name in the marriage index; before it, will be your mother's serial number, and after it the page.

Abbreviations: Adm., administrator; b., born; bef., before; d., died; d. y., died young; dau., daughter; grad., graduated; inv., inventory; m., married; rem., removed; res., resided, or resides; unm., unmarried. When no state is given after the name of a place, Massachusetts is meant. An interrogation point (?) implies doubt as to the date or other record preceding it.

There is no claim to perfection in this work ; on the contrary, no doubt it has as many errors as the average genealogy, if not more. Some of the records received were almost illegible, and could be deciphered only by the aid of others of the same line, repeating part, or all of them.

Although the principal object has been to compile a correct genealogy, some family history has been added, so far as the data was furnished by official records, or voluntarily contributed by relatives ; nothing of this kind has been solicited, as warning was given, when beginning the work, that more genealogy could be collected if no request was made for family history. Experience has confirmed the wisdom of that advice, as much difficulty has been encountered in collecting the genealogy only. With this as a basis, any one who wishes to write a history of his branch, or of the whole family, has a good foundation to work on.

In sending forth to their kindred the results of their researches for the numerous branches of the family, the authors can heartily adopt the sentiments of the compiler of the genealogy of the Walker family, who says :—

“ One who has had no experience in genealogical inquiries can form no idea of the amount of labor required to collect and arrange the names and material of the biography of the widely scattered and numerous descendants of the early settlers, through a period of two centuries and a quarter, the labor of extensive correspondence, examination of town and state records, histories, ancient wills and deeds, labor greatly increased by the delay, if not the refusal in some cases, of those from whom information was sought. His labor arising from these sources, delay and indifference, the compiler has reason to suppose, have not been greater than what is usually the experience of a family historian. But no complete and accurate genealogy can be prepared without an expenditure of time and money, for which no adequate remuneration can be expected, save in the satisfaction attending such pursuits, and in the consciousness of doing something to enshrine in a permanent memorial the lives and virtues of one's ancestors and kindred—a memorial which, while it may be no mean offering to their worth, may also be, to the descendants, full of inspiration, piety and patriotism, as they trace their lineage from the self-sacrificing founders of civilization, and the brave and steadfast defenders of freedom in this New World.”

CHAPTER II.

NICHOLAS NOYES AND HIS SON REV. NICHOLAS NOYES.

NOYES PEDIGREE.

BY JAMES ATKINS NOYES, PH. B., A. B.,
HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

Rev. William Noyes, born in 1568, died in Cholderton, county Wilts, England, before the 30th of April, 1622. His brother, Richard Noyes, of Cholderton, yeoman, made his will 25 August, 1639, in which he mentions widow Sara. Another brother, Robert Noyes, yeoman, born in 1570, died 20 January, 1659, and was buried at Cholderton.

The will of Richard Noyes of Manningford Bruce, in the diocese of Sarum, 2 February, 1590, mentions "the sons of Robert Noyes of Cholderton." This Robert may have been the father of William, Richard, and Robert Noyes. Richard Noyes of Manningford Bruce was son of William Noyes of Urchfont, yeoman (will 1557), who purchased the prebend of Urchfont in 1540, from the Earl of Hertford, afterwards Protector Somerset. The Noyes family of Urchfont was of the same stock as that of Cholderton.

Cholderton is about eleven miles from Salisbury, and near by is Wilton House, the seat of the Earl of Pembroke. James Frazier, in 1847, was rector of Cholderton, and in 1870 Bishop of Manchester. William Stubbs, in 1875, was rector of Cholderton, Bishop of Chester in 1884, and Bishop of Oxford in 1888. The advowson of the rectory of Cholderton now belongs to the Provost and Fellows of Oriel College, Oxford, having come into their possession in 1698.

William Noyes was born in England, and matriculated at University College, Oxford, 15 November, 1588, being admitted to the B. A. degree 31 May, 1592. He was instituted rector of Cholderton in 1602, and married Anne Parker about 1595. The inventory of his estate was made 30 April, 1622, and his widow Anne appointed administratrix, 28 May, 1622. His wife was born 1575, and buried at Cholderton, 7 March, 1657. Her will mentions "sons James and Nicholas, now in New England, and son-in-law Thomas Kent, of Upper Wallup, England." (References omitted.)

Children, born in England :—

- I. EPHRAIM, b. in 1596; was styled "Mr.," and lived at Orcheston, St. Mary. He married a Parnell, and was buried at Cholderton, 28 October, 1659, having made his will 5 Oct., 1659, proved 24 July, 1660.
- II. NATHAN, b. in 1597; was matriculated at Lincoln College, Oxford, 19 May, 1615, and admitted B. A. 26 Oct., 1616. During the civil war he lived at Sarum. In 1622 he succeeded his father as rector of Cholderton, and died 6 Sept., 1651, at Cholderton, and was buried at Salisbury. His will, made 28 Aug., 1651, was proved 18 Nov., 1651.
- III. JAMES, b. 1608; m., 1633, in England, Sarah Brown of Southampton, county Hants, England. He was matriculated at Brasenose College, Oxford, 22 August, 1627, but was not graduated. In March, 1633, he and his wife Sarah, brother Nicholas, and cousin Thomas Parker, with others, took the oath of supremacy and allegiance, to pass for New England, in the "Mary and John," of London, Robert Sayres, master. In 1633-4 he preached in Mystic, now Medford, Mass., and was made freeman 3 Sept., 1634, and with his brother Nicholas and cousin Thomas Parker, was among the first settlers of Newbury, Mass., in May, 1634-5. He died 22 Oct., 1656. . . .
- IV. NICHOLAS, b. 1615-6; m. Mary Cutting. --
- V. A daughter; m. Thomas Kent of Upper Wallop.
- VI. JOHN, was married, and lived in Newton, Wilts. . . .

The statement by some writers that Rev. William Noyes married Anne Stephens, daughter of Nicholas Stephens, Esq., of Burdrop Manor, Wilts, England, and that she was the mother of James and Nicholas Noyes, has been admitted to be undoubtedly incorrect.

Anne Noyes her marke sealed and delivered in presence of us John Tisdale T. Tisdale”

1. Nicholas<sup>1</sup> was born in England, 1615-6. He came to this country, as narrated in the introductory chapter, in 1633. He walked forty miles to Cambridge to qualify as a voter when he was made a freeman, 17 May, 1637; about 1640 married Mary Cutting, daughter of Captain John Cutting (a shipmaster, formerly of London), and Mary, his wife. John Cutting in his will mentions Mary, wife of Nicholas Noyes. Nicholas Noyes was a deputy to the General Court at Boston, from Newbury, 19 Dec., 1660, 28 May, 1679, 19 May, 1680, and 4 Jan., 1680-1. He was chosen deacon of the First Parish, 20 March, 1683-4, and died 23 Nov., 1701, at Newbury. His will was made 4 July, 1700, and proved 29 Dec., 1701; in it he mentions sons John, late of Newbury, deceased; Nicholas, of Salem; Cutting; Timothy; Thomas, deceased; and daughters Mary, wife of John French of Salisbury; Hannah, wife of John Atkinson, Sr., of Newbury; Sarah, wife of Mathew Pettin-gell of Newbury; Rachel, wife of James Jackman of Newbury; and Abigail, unmarried; also Mary, the widow of his son John. His son James was made executor. The personal estate was £1531, and the real estate was £1160 (307, 233, and 807: 236, at Salem). In deed 15: 41, at Salem, he conveys property to his grandson Nicholas, son of his son John, 19 April, 1698; and deed 27: 8, at Salem, 1 April, 1673, is an agreement between Nicholas Noyes, his wife Mary, and their son Cutting. The homestead of Nicholas Noyes is owned and occupied by the heirs of Nathaniel Little (1908).

"In 1652 many were brought before the court for not observing the Sumptuary laws of 1651. The records say, "Nicholas Noyes' wife, Hugh March's wife, and William Chandler's wife were each presented for wearing a silk hood and scarf; but were discharged on proof that their husbands were worth two hundred pounds each. John Hutchins' wife was also discharged upon testifying that she was brought up above the ordinary rank."

Rev. Nicholas, son of Nicholas and Mary Cutting, was born in Newbury, 22 Dec., 1647. Graduated at Harvard, 1667 (A. B.). Was made freeman 13 May, 1669. Chaplain of Connecticut regiment at Great Swamp fight, 19 Dec., 1675. He preached thirteen years at Haddam, Conn., and was given a unanimous call to become the seventh minister or church officer in Salem, Mass., 23 Oct., 1682-3, with a salary of £80 and 20 cords of wood annually, and was ordained over the First Church 14 Nov., 1683, and admitted to the church by recommendation from the church in Newbury.

"Nov., 1685, Messrs. Higginson and Noyes advise that parents who have not been baptized may have their children baptized if they will consent to be examined."

"25 May, 1693, the Rev. Nicholas Noyes preached the Election Sermon, which is prefaced by his senior colleague, John Higginson, and published."

"15 Dec., 1698, Messrs. Higginson and Noyes sent a long letter to the authors of the Declaration who call themselves undertakers of the New Church erected in Boston (Brattle Street Church), and complain of the Declaration because they consider it too lax in doctrine, in the ordinance of baptism, and also in admission to communion. They desire the authors of the Declaration not to be the beginners of schism." (Annals of Salem).

"Rev. Nicholas Noyes was among the clergymen who congratulated the Governor on the choice of John Leverett President of Harvard College, Nov., 1703."

About 1702 he wrote the Memoir of his uncle, Rev. James Noyes, in Mather's Magnalia. He officiated as clergyman at the hanging of the witches, Sept. 22, 1692, and after they were dead, said, "What a sad sight it is to see those eight firebrands of hell hanging there" (see Calef, p. 256). Later in life he repented of his part in the witchcraft persecutions, and did what he could to assist the dependent families. He died unmarried, in Salem, 13 Dec., 1717.

John Dutton, having visited him in 1686, writes, "He is all that is delightful in conversation ; it is no lessening to his brother Higginson to say that he is in no ways inferior to him for good preaching or primitive living." Brattle says of him, "His talents were good, his literature general, his acquaintance with theology extensive, his attachment to the ministry strong, and his life both useful and desired. A learned, a charitable, and a good man." He has been described as being "extremely fat."

Referring to the celibacy of Mr. Parker and Rev. Nicholas Noyes, a local poet (?) said :—

" Though Rome blaspheme the marriage bed,
And vows of single life has bred,
Chaste Parker, Stoughton, Brinsmade, Noyes,
Show us the odds 'twixt force and choice.
These undefiled contracted HERE
Are gone to Heaven and married THERE."

Rev. Nicholas wrote several poems and elegies, one on the death of his colleague, Mr. Higginson, in 1708, which was bound with the sermon preached by Cotton Mather on the same occasion ; and another on the death of Rev. Joseph Green, pastor of the church at Salem village, 1715 in which he says:—

" In God's house we of late did see A Green and growing Olive tree.
'Twas planted by a living spring
That always made it flourishing."

He also wrote an epitaph upon the death of Mr. Green :—

" Under this Sorry Heap of Stones
Rich Treasure Lyes, dear Joseph's Bones.
From Salem village Christ will move
Them to his Salem, that's above.
When the last Trumpet Gives its Sound,
The Saints will Start from Under Ground,
Be changed and Mount, with one accord,
To meet with their Descending Lord."

"July 29, 1697, John Davis of Gloucester, for 15 pounds, conveyed to Rev. Nicholas Noyes, Thatcher's Island, containing about 40 or 50 acres, lying off Cape Ann."

"Rev. Nicholas Noyes sold to John Levett, for £36 current and lawful silver money of N. E., viz : good civil pillar and Mexico pieces at 17 dwt to me in hand paid, by John Levett of Beverly, Fisherman.—5 lotts of land containing in all 35 acres, commonly called Kettle Cove lots."

Rev. Nicholas Noyes of Salem settled on the easterly part of a tract of about one acre and twenty poles previous to January 31, 1687, "bounded on ye south with ye land of Mr. Norrice, northerly by ye land formerly Mr. Sharp's, easterly upon ye broad street where ye school house standeth, and westwardly with ye street where Dr. Weld liveth." (Recorded February 9th, 1687.)

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN NOYES OF NEWBURY.

4.—JOHN<sup>a</sup>—1. Son of Nicholas and Mary (Cutting), was born 20 Jan., 1645, in Newbury. He was married 23 Nov., 1668, in Newbury, to Mary Poore of Andover. She was born in 1651, and died after 1716, as she is mentioned in her father's will in that year. He was made freeman 9 Jan., 1674; was a house carpenter, and lived in what was afterwards known as the "farms district," in a house built in 1677, and owned in 1879 by Luther Noyes. He died in Newbury, intestate, in 1691, and his widow Mary and son Nicholas were appointed administrators, and made their account 28 Sept., 1694; the personal estate was £309, and the real estate £246.

Miss Emery in her "Reminiscences," in referring to old homesteads, says "another ancient residence is situated in the 'Farms District,' Newbury. The place originally belonged to John Hull, who died in 1670. At his decease it was purchased by John, oldest son of Nicholas Noyes, who built the house soon after. The house, a substantial edifice, was built in a style unusual for a farmhouse in those early days. The front hall is wainscotted, and a handsome staircase, with the elaborately carved balusters, then fashionable for the first class mansions, leads to the second story. The kitchen fireplace has been reconstructed, but when it was built it was huge even for the period; an ox could have been roasted whole in its capacious recess. This house has been the birthplace of several clergymen, physicians, and other distinguished persons." The homestead has descended from John of the second generation to his son and grandson Daniel, — to Maj. Samuel, to Samuel his son, to Luther and his nephew Silas M.<sup>s</sup> (2208) the present occupant. On this farm is situated the mines which were discovered a few years ago.

13—DANIEL<sup>s</sup>—4. Son of John and Mary (Poor), was born in Newbury, 23 Oct., 1673; m. Judith Knight, 1702; died 15 March, 1716. By his will his estate, valued at £509, and a negro slave valued at £40, was to go to his wife Judith, until their son Daniel became of age, she to care for his mother, Mary (Poor) Noyes.

The following inscription is copied from 13-Daniel's tombstone :—

"Here lyes the body of Mr. Daniel Noyes, who died in March ye 15th, 1716, aged 42 years, 4 months, and 16 days.

As you are, so was I,
God did call, and I did dy.
Now children all, whose name is Noyes,
Make Jesus Christ your only choice."

John<sup>4</sup> was a graduate of Harvard, 1733.

15—JOHN<sup>3</sup>—4. Son of John and Mary (Poor), was born in Newbury, 19 Feb., 1677-8; married Mary Thurlo (Thorla) 1703-4. In 1708 liberty to build a saw mill was granted to Edmund Goodrich and John Noyes, for 21 years, on "Cart Creek." He was a blacksmith, and died intestate, 15 June, 1719, at Newbury. His widow was appointed administratrix 2 Nov., 1719. The personal estate was £100, and the real estate £543. May 24, 1718, he received the power of attorney from his brothers Nicholas and Samuel, of Abington, to act for them in regard to what they received from their uncle, Rev. Nicholas Noyes, late of Salem, and sister Thorla.

Children, born in Newbury :—

55—JOHN<sup>4</sup>—15. (For chart see 15—John). Son of John and Mary (Thurlo), was born in Newbury, 22 Aug., 1706; married first, Deborah Savell; second, Mrs. Esther Cobb, 1760; died 8 May, 1770. He was a blacksmith in Newbury, but in Abington, to which place he moved in 1728, he was referred to, in deeds, as a cordwainer and an innholder. He also lived in Sharon and Stoughton. His ancestry was uncertain for some time after all his descendants had been found, and until a deed was found recorded in Salem, showing that he had moved from Newbury to Abington. His name was dropped from the tax list in Sharon in 1769, and he died the next year in Salem.

Children, born in Stoughton:—

- 151 SARAH<sup>5</sup>, b. 1 May, 1742; m. Capt. Samuel Payson, 1760.
*152 JOHN, b. 8 July, 1744; m. Esther Cobb, 1765; d. 1769.
153 ABIGAIL, m. William Deverix.
154 NAOMI, m., first, William Caldwell, 1755; m., second, Fitz Gibbons, 1770.

152—JOHN<sup>5</sup>—55. Son of John and Deborah (Savell), was born in Stoughton, 8 July, 1744; married Esther Cobb, 1765; he was a mariner, and was lost at sea, 1769. As he and his father each married an Esther Cobb (mother and daughter), the records of these two naturally became somewhat mixed. A third John, in Abington, helped to complicate the records.

Only child, born in Salem:—

- *371 SAMUEL<sup>6</sup>, b. 16 Aug., 1766; m. Nancy R. Miller, 1786; d. 1841.

59—MOSES<sup>4</sup>—15. Son of John and Mary (Thurlo), was born in Newbury, 8 May, 1715; married Susannah Jaques, 1738; died 23 July, 1753, intestate, and his widow was appointed administratrix of the estate and guardian of the children. The estate was appraised at £278. He was a joiner by trade.

60—SIMON<sup>4</sup>—15. Son of John and Mary (Thurlo), was born in Newbury, 10 Nov., 1717; married, first, Martha Tappan, 1743; second, Elizabeth Eaton, 1754; died 1816. Although his first eight children are recorded as born in Newbury, church records show that he was living in East Kingston, N. H., in 1744. He moved to East Gloucester, Me., before 1774; he was moderator of the first town meeting there, 17 Sept., 1774, and was elected selectman. He was a soldier of the Revolution, as was his son, James T., their service being credited as from New Gloucester, Me. The town and county records of his Maine residence having been destroyed by fire, it has been very difficult to procure the data concerning his descendants, in the male line, except those of his son Nicholas, whose descendants have family records of their lines.

"Simon Noyes of Newbury sold to Joshua Noyes of Newbury, May 7, 1759, for £46, 13 shillings, and 4 pence, the one full half part of upland & marsh 20 acres, bounded southwesterly by East Creek, Northwesterly by the creek, to a bank of rocks, southeast to the Rocks, being the 20 acres that was sold to me by Moses Noyes Jr by Isaac & Mary 67—JOHN<sup>4</sup>—19. Son of Samuel and Hannah (Poor), was born in Abington, 7 April, 1720; married Abigail Poor, 1741; died 30 May, 1770. The Poore genealogy erroneously states that Joseph Noyes married Abigail, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Poore. The records of Rowley say that John Noyes of Haverhill married Abigail Poore of Rowley, 11 June, 1741. The history of Pembroke says that John, son of Samuel and Hannah (Poore) Noyes, of Abington, married Abigail Poor. After the death of his father, his uncle, Samuel Poor of Rowley, was appointed his guardian, 1736. (He settled in Pembroke, at what was then called the "Ox Bow." After his death, his son Benjamin was appointed administrator of his estate, which consisted of the home in Bow, valued at £115; an island in the Merrimac river, £9; house and farm in Pembroke, £170; personal property, £92. He was the progenitor of the largest branch of the family from the fourth generation, having eight sons, who had seventy-five children. Many of their descendants still live in the vicinity of the old home.

It has been said that Moses, their seventh son, married and lived in Bow, N. H., had four sons, and that he was drowned in the Merrimac river. No known descendants have been traced.

at Harvard in 1818 (A. B.) ; Divinity School, 1822 ; S. T. D., 1839. Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. " He was ordained in South Brookfield, Mass., 30 Oct., 1827, and later settled in Petersham, where he remained several years ; but the greater portion of his days was spent in the service of his Alma Mater as tutor in the college and as a professor on two foundations in the Divinity School. He first attracted attention by his translation of the book of Job which was followed by versions of the Psalms and the Prophets. For more than twenty years his was the leading mind in the Divinity School at Cambridge, and did more than any other to form the minds of the students, who will always cherish his name with love."

(Extracts from "Reminiscences of a Nonagenarian.")

He recognized the great advantage of a college education by giving each of his sons the same opportunities in that respect that he had enjoyed, and they graduated with credit from the same University that trained his master mind. The late Thomas B. Fox wrote of him as follows :—

" Almost to the hour of his decease he was engaged in correcting, with sedulous care, the closing proof sheets of a translation of the New Testament. The strength and clearness of his mental powers, the candor and fearlessness of his moral nature, and generosity and justice of his liberality, will be acknowledged by all."

“ Joseph Plummer Noyes, formerly of this city, died at his home in Lynn, on Sunday, at the age of 75 years. Mr. Noyes was born in this city in February, 1821. At the outbreak of the Mexican war he enlisted under Caleb Cushing, and served throughout the war. When peace was declared he returned to this city, and afterwards removed to Lynn, where he worked as a baker and shoemaker. He served with honor in the late rebellion, after which he went to sea for several years. A widow, several grandchildren, two brothers and two sisters survive him. The brothers are ex-Postmaster Isaac P. Noyes of this city, and Mayor Edward L. Noyes of North Weymouth. His sisters are Mrs. Mary E. Noyes and Mrs. Hanna P. Jones, both of this city.”—Newburyport News.

DESCENDANTS OF TIMOTHY NOYES.

FOURTH SON OF NICHOLAS.

7—TIMOTHY<sup>1</sup>—22. Son of Nicholas and Mary (Cutting), was born in Newbury, 23 June, 1655 ; married Mary Knight, 1680. He was credited with service in King Philip's war (Nov. 24, 1676). He made a will, Aug. 19, 1718, proved Oct. 2, 1718 ; inventory taken Nov., 1718. Legatees were named: Wife Mary, who was to have the westerly end of the house ; James, to have one-fourth of the freehold in the upper woods, which his father gave the testator, also his part of the rate lot ; Isaac (deceased), who left wife Jane, and child Enoch under 21 ; Nicholas to be clothed, etc., if he learn the trade or mystery of a doctor ; Timothy to have the residue, to include most of the real estate, and if he should decease without children, the same to go to said James to be paid out to the other heirs, as Timothy should, and James to be the executor ; Abigail, then unmarried ; Sarah, who had received a portion of her share ; Martha, who had already a part of her share ; Mary, then unmarried ; Rachel, then unmarried ; the daughters Abigail, Mary, and Rachel to have liberty to dwell in the back room of the house until married ; Abigail to have liberty to take wood from his land at the Neck.

His real estate "homestead, 8 acres, valued £200 ; ten acres in the great field, £24 ; four acres of land, little meadow, £20; six acres of woodland at the neck, £30; the wood lots & right in the common, £16; quarter of the Freehold & River lots, £70; quarter of the rate lot upper woods, £80; about 14 acres of salt meadow, £70. Inventory, £809, 10 shillings." The headstone at his grave is still standing in the Newbury cemetery. (See plate.)

beloved wife, the one-third part off my stock, and also all the household stuff and household Goods that she brought with her when I married her. I also give her free use and improvement of the one-half of my real estate during the term of six years next ensuing the date hereof; and at the end of six years next my will and pleasure that my wife shall have the free use and improvement of one-third of my real estate, as long as she remains a widow. I also give and ordain that my wife shall be at the charge of bringing up my youngest sons, until they shall arrive at the age of 14 years, and fit for going out for a trade.

Item, I give to my beloved son Silvanus (naming pieces of land, and where bounded, etc.).

Item, I give and bequeath to my beloved son Ebenezer the whole of my homestead, together with the buildings thereon, and also about 50 acres of land joining Silvanus's land. I also give my son Ebenezer a lot of land in Kingston, and also a lot of land and meadow which lays upon Belnap's Brook (so called), joining land of Thomas Johnson; and I will that my son Ebenezer shall come into immediate possession of one-half, and at the end of six years he shall come into possession of one-sixth, and at the death of my wife of the remaining part; and it is my will and pleasure that my son Ebenezer shall pay to my Beloved son Benjamin the sum of 120 pounds old tenor, when he shall arrive at the age of 21 years; and it is my Will and pleasure that my son Ebenezer shall pay to my Beloved son James the sum of 120 pounds, old tenor, when he shall arrive at the age of 21 years.

And I likewise Will and ordain that my son Ebenezer shall pay to my beloved son John the sum of 120 pounds, old tenor, when he shall arrive at the age of 21 years; and it is my will and pleasure that if either of my sons shall die before they arrive at the age of 21 years those that survive shall receive the legacies herein bequeathed to him or them, and it is my will and pleasure that my son Ebenezer shall pay all those just debts which in duty might or conscience I owe to any persons whatsoever.

I give and bequeath to my son Ebenezer two-thirds of my stock and remaining part of my personal estate which I have not disposed of to my wife, in this my last will and testament.

Lastly, I constitute and appoint, make and ordain, my trusty and well Beloved friend, Jonathan Carlton, of Amesbury District, in New Hampshire aforesaid, yeoman, and my beloved son Ebenezer, to be the Executors of this, my last Will and Testament; And I do hereby utterly revoke, Disarmit, and dissolve all former wills, testaments, Legacies, and Executors heretofore named or made. Ratifying and conforming this to be and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I, the said Timothy Noyes, have hereunto set my hand and seal thereto, this, the 26th day of Oct., Anno Domo, 1745, in the 19th year of his majestys reign.

Signed, Sealed, Published and Pronounced, and Declared, by the said Timothy Noyes to be the last will and testament, in the presence of us."

710—"Hon. John W. Noyes <sup>6</sup> died at his home in Chester last Friday evening at the advanced age of 92 years and 4 months. For a period of 70 years he had been a citizen of Chester and one of its leading business men most of that time.

Mr. Noyes was born in Springfield, this state, Jan. 14, 1810, and was a son of Daniel and Nancy (Weare) Noyes. His father was a native of Kingston and was among the early settlers of Newbury, Mass. He was a man of great prominence in his time and held all the public offices in the gift of the town in his day.

When Mr. Noyes first came to Chester, in 1832, he engaged in mercantile pursuits, and for a number of terms was a member of the legislature, serving first in 1841. He was a member of the Governor's council in 1864 and 1865. For over sixty years he had held the office of a justice of the peace continuously. For over seventy years he transacted more or less business through the probate courts.

Mr. Noyes was elected a director of Derry National bank in 1840, and in 1864 he was elected its president, and during all these years he filled the office with dignity and in a capable and business-like manner.

Mr. Noyes leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. William E. Greenough of Wakefield, Mass., and Miss Mary B. Noyes of Chester. He was a member of the Congregational church and always contributed to its support in a liberal manner.

He always lived an honest, upright and exemplary life. He was industrious, always anxious to do something for himself and others. He never used liquor or tobacco, and was generous and kind to the needy.

He was a gentleman of the old school, a type of man that is fast disappearing, tall, stately, dignified, senatorial-looking, courteous, honest as the sun, his word as good as his bond, gentle in disposition, a lover of his fellowmen, a staunch friend, high-minded, an active industrious business man, a noble Christian, deeply religious in his nature. Until prostrated by ill health he had occupied a prominent position in his town and county and was well known throughout the state. He had occupied numerous positions of trust and responsibility. Since the formation of the Republican party he has been a loyal and staunch adherent to its principles. He believed in its history, was proud of its achievements, and anticipated for it a glorious future. Throughout his long illness he kept in close touch and sympathy with the political movements of the day."—Derry News.

283—DAVID<sup>5</sup>—96. Son of James and Elizabeth (Brown), was born in Winchendon, 16 June, 1786; married Hannah

S. Needham, 1804 (?) He went to Norway, Me., about 1804; he had a good education for the times, and taught school in winter, engaging in other business in summer, until 1810, when he taught the public school in winter and a private school in summer until 1815. He began clearing his farm in 1810, the location being near the centre of the present town site. He was a surveyor of land, and some of his surveys are now in the county records. He was also a Justice of the Peace, and a conveyancer of real estate; and served as county commissioner for Oxford Co.

Late in life he published a history of Norway, the first history of an Oxford county town. It was a volume of 214 pages. Its array of facts and incidents does much credit to his observation and memory, of men and things, although the matter was crudely put together. The facts are not arranged in chronological order and not being indexed the work is not of easy reference. It speaks well for the town of Norway, for Mr. Noyes' book was written by a resident of Norway, printed upon Norway paper (manufactured at Steeps Falls) and bound in Norway by Noyes and Beals. (The Noyes book binder was Robert Noyes, also president of the Norway Savings Bank.)

120—NATHANIEL<sup>4</sup>—43. Son of James and Sarah (Little), was born in Atkinson, N. H., 21 Dec., 1747; married Sarah Harriman; died 7 April, 1813. He moved from Atkinson to Boscawen, N. H., 1776, and thence to Haverhill, N. H., and later to Landaff, N. H. He is credited with service in the Revolution, having served as a private in Capt. Emery's company of Col. Baldwin's regiment, at White Plains, N. Y. When he moved to Landaff he cleared the land of his farm and built a log house, in which he lived several years. It is related that he raised grain and grass, and that it was his custom each winter to take a load to Portland with an ox team, and bring home a year's supply of groceries. A great snow storm detained him on one trip, and several days passed before he could reach home. His wife, a large, robust woman, getting out of fuel, cut down large birches into fire wood.

He was a classmate of Daniel Webster, and wrote the reminiscences of his life. He was an expert chemist, and invented a process for making artificial teeth at less expense than by former processes, and improved the methods for making salt at the Syracuse works. He was as eccentric in his manner as he was learned in his profession. He had no descendants.

James,<sup>6</sup> son of Humphrey and Judith (Noyes), became a cripple when eleven years of age, by wading in the brook near his home, and was until his death confined to the house and to the use of crutches. He made an almanac, which was printed in 1794. This almanac was called "The New Hampshire and Massachusetts Almanac," and was calculated to serve for the New England States. He also was the author of an arithmetic, which was extensively used in the public schools of New Hampshire. He died in Atkinson, at the age of twenty-one years.

307—JOHN—98. Son of Humphrey and Elizabeth (Little), was born in Atkinson, N. H., 2 April, 1764; married Polly Hayes, 1803; died 26 Oct., 1841. Graduated at Dartmouth, 1795, where he was a tutor from 1797 to 1799. He was a member of Congress, 1815-1817.

CHAPTER VIII.

RECORD OF MILITARY AND NAVAL SERVICE.

---

The poem on the dedication page tells of

“The men whose unrecorded deeds
Have stamped this nation’s destiny.”

Fortunately all the deeds that determined our destiny were not unrecorded ; but, as the poem says, the great majority lie in country graveyards, with no record to recall their deeds, except

“ the tottering slabs of slate, Whose tribute moss and mould efface ; ” and although theirs may not be the names that give the right of membership in the patriotic societies, still the most of them, in their day and generation, bore their share of the trials, troubles and tribulations incident to the building of the States ; some in an humble way, but none the less meritorious, because they had not the greater opportunities that came to others. A descendant of one branch of those recorded in Volume II was anxious to join a patriotic society, but he could find no soldier ancestors, most of them having been clergymen ; and had to find a Revolutionary ancestor in the maternal line. But he had a paternal ancestor who has a record for service in Indian wars, and who would probably have had a revolutionary record had he been living.

then. One of our correspondents informs us that she was admitted to one of the societies on account of his services to the colony ; had he been of the fifth generation no doubt all his descendants would be eligible to all the patriotic societies for the same reason.

The war services recorded in these volumes, in the family records, have, as a rule, been contributed by the parties who served, or their relatives. All service of which an official record has been found is given in this chapter and in Chapter X of Vol. II.

Having been a soldier in the regular army for nearly half a century, Colonel Noyes naturally takes an interest in the service of those of our name, and only regrets that he has not as complete records of all who have served their country as he has of his own service. Some (if not many) who served in the civil war will not find their services recorded, but the reason why some records could not be obtained will be given later. For the benefit of future generations, all such services should be recorded in full on the blank pages after the last chapter of each volume ; the time will come when such records will be priceless. The records given in this chapter are simply indications to guide descendants to their patriot ancestors, and inform them where to look for more records.

Extracts from the constitution and by-laws of several of the most prominent patriotic societies, with requisites for membership, initiation fees, etc., are given in Chapter X of Volume II.

As stated in the introductory chapter, an effort was made to procure from the war department in Washington, copies of all records of military and naval service rendered by those of our name, for which the necessary expense of copying was guaranteed. Not being successful in that effort, other methods had to be adopted, with results that are all too slight to satisfy the authors, for several reasons; the principal one being the great expense incident to getting the records from forty-five States,* most of which sent men of our name to the various wars in which the country has been involved since 1860. As there was but little emigration from the New England States before the Revolution, we have secured quite complete records of the names, etc., of those of our name who served in the Revolution from the N. E. States records, and have nearly two hundred such records; about half of which have been determined as to their ancestry, giving their descendants the assurance that they are eligible to membership in the patriotic societies. Many of the records gave no place of residence or enlistment, or other data which would assist in fixing their ancestry, and in many cases were evidently additional records of those of the same name whose ancestry has been determined. It is probable that at least three-fourths of all who had revolutionary service have been identified. All these have their serial numbers prefixed for those recorded in Volume I; and following the names are the serial numbers for Volume II.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., }
February 23, 1897. }

ORDERS: The muster rolls and other records of individual officers, enlisted men and organizations, which are on file in the Record and Pension Office of this Department, and which pertain to the war of the Rebellion, the Mexican war, the various Indian wars, the war of 1812, and the war of the Revolution, have become so dilapidated through years of constant handling, or other causes, that it has been found necessary to adopt stringent measures for their preservation, and to restrict reference to them to cases in which such reference is absolutely necessary. Many of the most important of those records have been reproduced by the index-record system, but the handling of these cards, as well as the original records which they represent, by persons not thoroughly instructed in their use and not under the control of this department, involves great danger of the loss, through misfiling or otherwise, of cards or other records which cannot be replaced. For these reasons, as well as for others equally cogent, the department is compelled to restrict access both to the original records and the index-record cards exclusively to persons who are in the employ of the department and are lawfully subject to its control.

*The General Register of the Sons of the American Revolution states that the officials of some of the States charge three dollars for a copy of war service record; others charge two dollars for the search, and a dollar more for a certificate of service; and some charge only one dollar for the search and copy of record. The best way to procure copies of such records is by application to the chief of the record and pension office; Washington, D. C., as provided by the official order on the subject, a copy of which is given in this chapter.

The department will furnish at any time such information relative to any individual officer or enlisted man as its records afford, and as may be actually necessary to enable the proper officials of any State, or any relief association, patriotic society, or other kindred organization, to pass upon any application that may have been made in good faith for aid, relief, or membership, and that may properly come within the jurisdiction of such officials or organization. But requests for information relative to individual officers or enlisted men, or for the compilation of statistical or other data relative to particular organizations, to be used for historical or memorial purposes, or for publication, cannot be entertained, because the limited clerical force allowed by law is insufficient to enable the department to comply with such requests without serious interference with more important current work.

The records of general historical value pertaining to the late war have either been published, or soon will be published, in the "Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies," so as to render them accessible to all who may be interested in them. Should Congress provide in future for a similar publication of the records relating especially to individual officers, enlisted men, and organizations of that war and prior wars, the historical data which those records contain will also become available for general use, but until such publication shall have been authorized or other legislation enacted, it will be impracticable for the department to furnish compilations or statements from those records for historical, memorial, or statistical purposes, or for publication.

For the reasons set forth above, the following rules have been adopted relative to the subject of furnishing statements or extracts from the records of the personnel of the volunteer armies and other similar records on file in the Record and Pension Office of this Department, and are hereby announced for the information and guidance of all concerned :

1. All requests, made by persons other than officials of the United States, for information from the official records must, to receive favorable consideration, set forth the specific purpose for which they are made, and must be sufficiently in detail to enable this Department to determine for itself how much, if any, of the information asked for is necessary for the purpose indicated and can properly be furnished.

2. Any such request that may be made with a view to determining the merits of an application for State or other aid or relief must be made, over his own signature, by the State or other official who may be authorized by law to decide whether such aid or relief shall be furnished; or, in case the decision rests with a board, commission or association, the request must be made, over his or her own signature, by the chief officer of the board or other organization which is empowered to decide the case. All such requests must, to receive favorable consideration, meet the following requirements :

(a) The character of the relief or aid for which application has been made must be fully and specifically set forth.

(b) If the application is to be decided under a law of any State, that law must be definitely cited.

(c) If the application is pending before any board or association, not created by or acting under any law, the source from which such board or association derives its authority to act must be stated.

(d) If the pending application is of some person other than the one whose record is desired, the relationship of the applicant to the person whose record is desired must be set forth.

(e) The full name of the person whose record is requested, the rank held by him, and the designation of the organization of which it is claimed that he served, must invariably be stated.

3. Any request that may be made for the purpose of enabling a society or association to decide as to the eligibility or non-eligibility of an applicant for admission thereto must be made by the chief officer, over his or her own signature, of that branch of the society or association in which the application is to be voted upon or otherwise decided, and must meet the following requirements :

(a) The title or designation, and the location, of the branch to which the application for membership has been made must be given.

(b) The full name and residence of the applicant, and the date on which the application was made, must be stated.

(c) The relationship of the applicant to the person whose record is desired, if the application for membership was not made by such person himself, must be set forth.

(d) If the record of any other person has been requested of, or furnished by, the War Department, in connection with the pending application, a statement to that effect, including the name of the person whose record has been requested or furnished, must be made.

(e) The full name and rank of the person whose record is desired, and the designation of the company and regiment, if any, in which he served, must be invariably stated in all cases in which service during the War of the Rebellion is claimed.

(f) The full name of the person whose record is desired, and the State from which he entered service or of which he was a resident at the time of his entry into service, must be invariably stated in all cases in which service during the Revolution or the War of 1812 is claimed. His rank and the designation of the organization in which he served, if known, should also be stated.

(g) Requests for the record of a man whose surname only is known, or for information relative to all the men bearing a certain name, will not be entertained.

4. Requests emanating from a post or other subsidiary organization of the Grand Army of the Republic must be forwarded through, and must be authenticated by the signature of, the Department Commander. Requests emanating from the subdivisions of other associations founded on military service during the War of the Rebellion must be forwarded and authenticated as follows: Union Veterans' Union, through department commanders; Union Veteran Legion, through the National Commander; Sons of Veterans, through division commanders.

5. The information that will be furnished for use in connection with any application for membership in any society or association, or for State or other aid or relief, will be strictly limited to that which is actually necessary to enable a decision upon the pending application to be made, and will in no case comprise items that may be desired for any other purpose, such as to complete the records of a society, to make some other and different application, or to be used in the prosecution of a claim against the United States.

Concise statements of the military histories, so far as shown by the records on file, of men who served in the Revolution or in the War of 1812, will be furnished upon the application of descendants of those men, under the following conditions:

(a) The relationship of the applicant to each person whose record is desired must be stated.

(b) The full Christian name as well as the surname of such person must invariably be given, and the rank which he held and the designation of the organization in which he served, if those are known, must be stated.

(c) The place, or at least the State, from which he entered service, or of which he was a resident at the time of his entry into service, must be designated.

(d) If the name of the person whose record is desired is a common one, the designation of the organization in which he served, or the names of some of the regimental officers under whom he served, must be stated.

e) Requests for information relative to all the men bearing a certain name will not be entertained, nor will any other request involving an unreasonable expenditure of time and labor be considered.

(f) There will not be furnished to or for any one descendant the record of service of more than two ancestors in the Revolution, or of more than two in the War of 1812.

7. Each request for the record of an officer or enlisted man of any war should be made on a separate sheet of paper, should be complete in itself, and should fully meet all the requirements of this order. In no case should requests for the records of two or more men be combined in one communication.

8. Compilations or statements relative to individual officers, enlisted men or organizations will not be furnished, from the records on file in the Record and Pension Office, for historical, memorial or statistical purposes, or for publication, or to complete the records of States, societies or associations.

9. Because of the great danger of the destruction, loss or misfiling, through handling by inexperienced persons or those not under the control of this Department, of the muster rolls and other regimental or company records, index-record cards, and all other similar records, which are on file in the Record and Pension Office, and which pertain wholly or chiefly to the personnel of the armies of the various wars, the handling of those records will be restricted exclusively to the specially trained employees of that office, and no information will be furnished from them except as hereinbefore provided, or as may be otherwise required by law.

Secretary of War.

JAMES,	England,	Vandalia.
LEVERETT W.,	Salem, Mass.,	Sonora.

The following sketch from the Boston Herald refers to 745-Amos F. Noyes. (See page 359.)

NORWAY, ME., Nov. 20, 1903.

The oldest living member of the Grand Army now in Maine is Capt. Amos A. F. Noyes of this town, who, at the advanced age of 91, retains his faculties and health to a wonderful degree.

His military degree began in 1836, when he was chosen captain of the Norway militia. In 1839 he was appointed by the governor of Maine as a captain, and served in the Aroostook war of that year. When the Civil war broke out he entered the service, Dec. 16, 1861, as first lieutenant of Co. G, 14th regiment, serving six months and two days, when he was discharged for disabilities caused by wounds.

As soon as he recovered from these wounds he was commissioned by the governor of Maine a captain of Company H, 23d regiment, serving in this capacity nine months, receiving a discharge for expiration of time. He was then appointed captain of Company B, 32d regiment, on March 10, 1864, being discharged Dec. 12 of the same year by consolidation.

During his term of service he was in the battles of the Wilderness, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, North Anna River, and in front of Petersburg. Near the court house at Spottsylvania he received a severe wound in his shoulder from a shell, and was left on the field for dead. He has always suffered from the effects of this wound. He at one time received a fracture of three ribs, through falling down a hatchway on board a vessel at Ship Island.

While in the 32d regiment, by reason of the sickness of the colonel and the major, he was for some time in charge of the regiment. This regiment saw some of the hardest service of the war, and Capt. Noyes was in the thickest of it.

Since the war closed Capt. Noyes has retained his interest in the welfare of the country and of the soldiers who served under him, and has kept in tough with them. He has served as commander of Harry Rust Post, G. A. R., in Norway, and has always attended the reunions of the regiments to which he belonged. At the reunion of the old 32d this summer he was the oldest person in the assembly.

Capt. Noyes was the son of Ward Noyes, born in Andover, Mass., in the year 1772, and married Clarissa Wood. Ward Noyes early moved to Norway, where his son, the subject of this sketch, was born, Dec. 14, 1812. When only eight years old, by the death of his father, Amos was left to the care of his widowed mother. He attended the district schools of the town, and, with what privileges were at his disposal, gathered considerable knowledge.

Early in manhood he learned the carpenter's trade, which, with his farming, he carried on until the outbreak of the Civil war. Three years prior to that time he served as chairman of the selectmen of the town, and after his return from the war served in a similar capacity three years more.

Soon after his return to Norway he sold his farm and removed to the village, where he has since resided, following his trade for many years, and finally retiring from active work. He lives in his own home, quietly and comfortably.

Now, at the age of 91, he still is active and interested in all about him.

CORRECTIONS AND ADDITIONS.

After examining your family, or other records, look in this list to see if there are corrections or additions to them. Most of the corrections noted here are misspelled proper names. As there are over fifteen thousand such names in this volume, it would be singular if there were no errors.

Several of the additions given here have been received since the family record where they belonged was printed.

If the name you wish to find by the indexes is not on the page indicated, look on the next page for it.

Since the Preface was written, it was decided to add Chapter VIII., which will account for the correction on page 38. The blank leaves for continuing records will be found after the last chapter of each volume.

NOYES INDEX.

(If you cannot find what you want by this index, look in the marriage index for your mother's maiden name if your name is Noyes. If not Noyes, look for your father's name; the page and serial number should enable you to find what you wish.)
